News Of Servicemen

Airman Third Class William H. Strandt of Torrance is being reassigned to the Azores following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for administrative specialists at Amarillo AFB, Texas.

Airman Strandt was trained to type, prepare and route official correspondence, maintain files and follow general office practices. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Strandt of 22141 S. Vermont, Torrance, the airman entered the service in March 1962.

Thomas W. Howell, son of Mrs. Margaret C. Howell of 3607 W. 227th St., Torrance, has been promoted to specialist fourth class in the United States Army.

Specialist Howell is assigned to the Adjutant General Section of Headquarters, XV U.S. Army Corps at the Presidio of San Francisco. XV U.S. Army Corps supervises and administers all Army Reserve activities in California, Arizona and Nevada.

Specialist Howell was graduated from Carmelite Jr. Seminary in Hamilton, Mass., in 1956 and from Loyola University in Los Angeles in 1961. He entered the Army in 1961 and completed his basic training at Fort Ord in December before being assigned to Headquarters, XV Corps.

Specialist Howell and his wife, Melba Marie, make their permanent home in Hermosa Beach.

Marine Second Lieutenant Bud R. Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hickman of 1517 W. 215th St., Torrance, departed the continental United States on Sept. 6 bound for Okinawa with other members of the Second Battalion, Fifth Marine Regiment.

The unit will spend 12 months in Okinawa with the Third Marine Division, the Marine Corps' major deterrent in the Far East.

The battalion's transfer is part of the Marine Corps' regular rotation system which periodically calls for the shifting of units from duty on the U.S. mainland to the Far East.

Marine Lance Corporal William C. McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McLean of 1028 Arlington Ave., Torrance, departed the continental United States on Sept. 6, bound for Okinawa with other members of the Second Battalion, Fifth Marine Regiment.

The unit will spend 12 months in Okinawa with the Third Marine Division, the Marine Corps' major deterrent in the Far East.

The battalion's transfer is part of the Marine Corps' regular rotation system which periodically calls for the shifting of units from duty on the U.S. mainland to the Far East.
